bright Jewish future

Open doors for a

Nearly eight years ago, Rabbi Levi and Miriam Hodakov moved to Pinellas County to promote and strengthen Jewish awareness, pride and observance. Just over two years ago they established Chabad of Clearwater continuing to provide educational, cultural and social activities to the Jewish residents of Clearwater, Largo and Belleair. Thankfully, due to Chabad's success, the time has arrived for a new expanded facility. Our new center will be located at 2280 Belleair Road, in the heart of Clearwater. Even as we grow, we shall preserve the warm and intimate atmosphere that has attracted so many families and individuals to Chabad of Clearwater.

OUR MISSION has been to create a welcoming and non-judgmental environment where every Jew is welcome, regardless of background, affiliation or financial means – where everyone feels at home, from the inexperienced in ritual and practice to the most learned. A place which promotes Jewish continuity, where children play and learn and develop their Jewish identities, where our elders share their wisdom, where parents learn to transmit the joy and beauty of Judaism to the next generation. A place which provides spiritual, emotional and material assistance to those in need.
